

‘Professor William Buckland (1784 - 1856) - The most distinguished person - so far - to have been born at Axminster.

Weds 19th March,
7:30pm, Bradshaw
Room, Thomas
Whitty House,
Axminster Heritage
Centre.

Part 1: Buckland's character, early career at Oxford, and collaboration with others with connections to Axminster and Lyme Regis (including Mary Anning, William Daniel Conybeare and Henry de La Beche).

Weds 16th April,
7:30pm, Bradshaw
Meeting Room,
Thomas Whitty
House, Axminster
Heritage Centre.

Part 2: Selected highlights of his scientific and public service career at Oxford and Westminster, and the verdict of time on the continuing relevance of his contributions to the science of geology.

Both talks will be given by local historian, David Knapman.

Tickets: £5.00 per talk (10% discount to AHC members). Please buy or reserve your ticket(s) in advance from Axminster Heritage Centre.

Axminster Heritage Centre, Thomas Whitty House, Silver Street, Axminster, Devon, EX13 5AH. Tel: 01297 639884. Email: info@axminsterheritage.org

Charity No: 1113818.